Awareness Raising Campaign

$939

The design, development and promotion of an online advocacy campaign using The Water Project's primary website.

This initiative seeks to educate students and adults about the lack of access to clean water in the developing world and the solutions being implemented to provide relief.

Education - Research and Development

$7,800

Through a grant provided specifically for this purpose, The Water Project is researching and designing a revolutionary online advocacy platform. This new internet based toolset will engage donors in the effort to provide clean water to developing nations in a manner that provides vastly increased transparency into the work of water relief organizations like The Water Project. The platform and related technologies will benefit the entire clean water community and serve to educate constituents about the relief efforts.

Program Monitoring - Travel Expenses

$1,505

Two week trip to Kenya to evaluate completed and proposed water projects with The Sharing Way and The Bridge Water Project.

Total

$10,244
